TENDER FOR SHORT LIST

Results

NEW UPDATE

All Partner of Project AIDA,

Considering that:

- the inclusion in the ranking of candidates is in alphabetical order as there are no rankings of merit;
- approved lists are open and can be updated according to project needs;
- inclusion in the list, of a purely cognitive and non-binding nature, does not entail any right to obtain the professional assignment as with the notice in question there is no selective procedure, nor is the preparation of rankings of merit;
- partners are free to select experts by identifying them from the list of various profiles for the assignment of professional assignments.
- the contracts will comply with the requirements of the laws of the state of the contracting partner and the relevant community legislation, without any obligation of subordination.
- the assignment or service will be motivated and will be regulated by a specific contract, in which the methods, times and fees for carrying out the same will be established. In any case, once the selected expert has been hired by the partner, the remaining Project Partners cannot be held responsible in any way for the legal, economic and financial issues that may arise during the performance of the activity between the expert and partner contract.

Given that:

- on 08/08/2020 the first call for short list was published
- on 03/09/2020 the partners approved the results of the Commission
- on 07/10/2020 cross border group expressed the need to expand the short lists to select professional figures deemed most suitable for the activities of the AIDA project. The reopening of the call aims to implement the Short Lists of Experts for the identification, from time to time, in relation to the activities and projects to be carried out, the unavailability of internal human resources and the availability of financial resources, technical figures and specialists to whom assign any tasks related to the results to be achieved within the AIDA project;
- on 09 October 2020, the tender was re-published on the web portals of the project partners for the involvement new artistic profiles for the project activities to be carried out within the AIDA project;
- for registration purposes, applicants had to declare to be in possession of the requirements set out in art. 3 and 4 to the tender and had to submit the application for registration and related attachments as specified in art. 5 of the same tender;
- the existence of the requisites is certified by the experts through self-declaration and the subjects admitted to the list may be asked to provide documentation proving that they possess the requisites declared in the application and the partners reserve the right to verify the veracity of the data

- indicated in the application participation and related attachments, and to request supporting documents at any time;
- On 30 October 2020 the partner of the AIDA project have decided to rectify this call in an open short list for each figure in the call (without deadline in sending the application) updated every two months, publishing the updated lists of experts by the following dates (First update by 15/11/2020; Second update by 15/01/2021; Third update by 15/03/2021);
 - The first update was published on November 15, 2020;
